The Department of the History of Art and Architecture has determined that writing recitation TA/TFs have 120 hours (per 44 students) and 97.5 hours (per 30 students) available each term for grading* and related duties.

The recommended grading assignment for writing recitations includes three four-page assignments with rewrites or four three-page assignments with rewrites (90 hours per 44 students; 67.5 hours per 30 students), both calculations fulfilling the University requirement of 24 pages of writing for the term. The TA’s/TF’s remaining 30 hours is to be constituted from the development, administration, and grading of shorter in-class exercises.

These recommendations are based on the following estimates: 30 minutes as the amount of time required to grade a three-page paper as part of a writing practicum exercise (22 papers=11 hours/15 papers=7.5 hours); for rewrites of the same, approximately 5.5 hours per 22 papers/3.75 hours per 15 papers in addition.

The TA/TF Contract Committee will hold a meeting with all TAs/TFs during the third week of each term to review any questions or issues regarding contracts and their implementation. Additional TA/TF meetings with the Contract Committee will take place as needed.

* University regulations stipulate 300 hours total per term as the maximum number of work hours required of TAs/TFs. The Contract Committee established that attendance at lecture, recitation, office hours, meetings with course supervisor, doing assigned readings, and preparation takes 180 hours per term for writing recitation TAs/TFs.

 As established under an earlier TA/TF Contract with the Department of the History of Art and Architecture, TAs/TFs are not expected to pull slides or load them into carousels for the purposes of the course instructor's lectures. Contract revisions of spring 2000 established that TA/TF responsibilities for Web site maintenance or any other digitizing or computer work are restricted to research and visual resource library TA/TF positions and may not be required of any other TAs/TFs. Writing TAs/TFs are to do grading ONLY for that course which they are conducting.
