Fifth Marcella L. Finegold Memorial Public Debate

Wednesday, February 13, 2013, 7:00-8:30 p.m.
Hot hors d’oeuvres, snacks and beverages served at 6:15 p.m.

Location: O’Hara Student Center Ballroom, 4024 O’Hara Street, Oakland

DEBATE QUESTION:
“Should a physician be mandated to perform, show and explain high-resolution ultrasound images of the patient’s pregnancy to each woman presenting for abortion care?”

AFFIRMATIVE ADVOCATES:
- Teresa Stanton Collett, Esq., Professor of Law, University of St. Thomas, and special Attorney General, States of Oklahoma and Kansas
- Former PA Rep. Jeff Coleman (R-Apollo), Founder, Churchill Strategies
- Paras Minhas, senior majoring in microbiology, Dietrich School, University of Pittsburgh

OPPOSITION ADVOCATES:
- Dr. Nancy L. Stanwood, Associate Professor of Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Reproductive Sciences and Associate Clinical Professor of Nursing; Section Chief of Family Planning, Yale Medical School
- PA Rep. Matthew Bradford (D-Montgomery County)
- Victoria Julian, junior majoring in biology and economics, Dietrich School

PANEL OF QUESTIONERS:
Dr. Maggie Benson
Raul Larsen
Dr. Natasha Parekh
Dr. Rachel Rapkin
Nathan Woodford
Moderator: Gordon Mitchell, Associate Professor and Chair, Department of Communication, University of Pittsburgh

View WPDU public debates, including this one, at: http://mediasite.cidde.pitt.edu/
For more information, contact Gordon Mitchell at gordonm@pitt.edu