Andrew Mellon Fellowships are awarded to students of exceptional ability and promise who are enrolled or wish to enroll at the University of Pittsburgh in programs leading to the Ph.D. in various fields of the humanities, the natural sciences and the social sciences. These fields are the following:

in the social sciences  Anthropology, Economics, History, Political Science, and Sociology.

Awards are made on an annual basis. The stipend will be $16,500 for the 2005-06 academic year plus a tuition scholarship. Persons holding Andrew Mellon Fellowships are expected to engage in full-time study during the period of their fellowship. No additional duties will be required or permitted.

Applications and all supporting materials should be submitted by January 14, 2005 either to the appropriate department and marked Andrew Mellon Predoctoral Fellowships Attn: Graduate Secretary, or to Andrew Mellon Predoctoral Fellowships, Office of Graduate Studies, Faculty of Arts and Sciences, 5141 Sennott Square, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260. Late and incomplete applications cannot be considered.

Supporting documentation includes:

1. Transcripts of all previous academic work.
2. Three letters of recommendation from persons able to judge the applicant’s qualification for graduate study.
3. No more than a three page double-spaced summary describing the applicant’s proposed research and its significance, and/or study plan for the Mellon Fellowship year. The summary should be written to be understood by people in the field of study as well as people in other fields.
4. No more than a two page Curriculum Vitae.
5. GRE/TOEFL scores.

Applications for renewal will be considered, except for first year graduate students who are current Mellon Fellows. Such students may apply for renewal later in their graduate careers. Fellows who wish a renewal must file a new application, with supporting material, except for transcripts from other institutions submitted previously. The summary should include a report on the applicant’s progress. They will be evaluated on overall merit and on progress made toward the Ph.D. degree. Fellows are eligible for a maximum of two years of support.

Fellowships awards will be announced by March 1.
