Basic Leadership Training 2011

Conestoga District is once again offering Basic Leadership Training (BLT), required adult leadership orientation for any registered adult Boy Scout volunteer in a troop, district, or council leadership position. Parents of new scouts are also encouraged to attend this valuable training to learn more about the mission and methods of Boy Scouting.

Leader Specific Training

This training is designed to provide a solid overview of the scouting program, as well as training for a specific scouting positions. It provides the specialized knowledge for:

- Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters
- Troop Committee Chairs and Troop Committee members

Outdoor Leader Skills

Outdoor skills are critical to the success of the Scouting program. Training in outdoor skills is required before taking scouts on outings. Outdoor Leader Skills will provide you with the basic outdoor skills information needed to start and guide a program the right way. Completion of both the Indoor and Outdoor sessions is required for a leader to be designated as "Trained".

BLT 2011 is being offered March 19th and April 15th & 16th

The training will be held in two sessions.
