22th Annual Model United Nations Simulation
November 13, 2018
University of Pittsburgh

What is the Model UN?
The Model UN is a simulation of the sessions of the United Nations. This is an opportunity for students to apply prior research and studies in a “real-world” context and practice diplomacy, negotiating, and resolution writing.

When and Where?
The Model United Nations Simulation will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 13, 2018 in the William Pitt Union, 3959 Fifth Avenue on the University of Pittsburgh’s Oakland campus.

Committees 2018
1. Ad Hoc Committee
2. United Nations Disarmament and International Security (DISEC)
3. United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC)
5. Social, Humanitarian and Cultural Committee (SOCHUM)
6. World Food Programme (WFP)
7. United Nations Security Council (UNSC)

The specific scenarios and issues for discussion/debate can be found in the 2018 PitMUN Manual

*The Ad Hoc Security Council is meant for students skilled and experienced with Model UN, as there will be no information on the topics given beforehand.

Position Papers
Position papers are optional but will be considered for awards. The top three position papers will be recognized at closing ceremonies, with the top paper receiving the CLARKE THOMAS MEMORIAL AWARD.

In order to be considered for awards, the position papers must be emailed to: pitmunpositionpapers@gmail.com—no later than October 29th, 2018, by 5 PM.

Registration
To register please visit:
http://www.pitt.edu/~modelun/generallinfo.html

Please print a copy for your records before clicking “submit” on the online form, and send payment immediately to the address listed below—you won’t be officially registered until you receive a confirmation from us.

What Include?
Registration fee is $25.00 per student. This covers continental breakfast, lunch, and photocopying.

TIP: You may register immediately without the names of your students.

Requirements?
In order to participate in the Model UN Simulation, each delegation (country) will require at least 7 but no more than 14 delegates (students). No school may bring more than a total of 30 delegates (students).

Check Payable to:
University of Pittsburgh

*payment must be accompanied by the registration form.

Send Payment to:
C/o Dijana M. Osma
Center for Latin American Studies
University of Pittsburgh
4200 Wesley W. Posvar Hall
250 South Bouquet St.
Pittsburgh, PA, 15260

DRESS CODE***
We require “Western business attire.” We will reiterate: no denim (including skirts), no spaghetti straps (shoulders and upper arms must be covered), skirts should be knee length, no athletic shoes, and the young man should wear shirts and ties. Teachers may copy this dress code and send it home to parents.

Please be aware that if a student does not dress appropriately, it will be at the discretion of Pitt Model UN as to whether or not the student can participate in the program.

General Questions?
Please contact Pitt-Model UN Club:
pittmodelun@gmail.com

For questions regarding registration:
dms180@pitt.edu

Sponsors
Pitt’s Model UN Club, International Business Center–Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business, and The University Center for International Studies and its Area Studies Centers:

- African Studies
- Asian Studies
- European Studies
- Global Studies
- Latin American Studies
- Russian & East European Studies

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!