All papers of high quality will be considered;
this year we especially encourage submissions focused on the topic of

Understanding and Explanation

This topic should be construed broadly and may among other things include questions concerning idealization, reduction, emergence, scientific and mathematical explanation, explanation in the theory of action, ontological judgments, abduction, induction, scientific practice and methodology, or causation.

- All submissions must be prepared for blind review. The paper must have no identifying information and must include at the top an abstract of no more than 250 words.
- Submitted papers must be no more than 4000 words in length.
- All papers must be submitted electronically as a .pdf or .doc. by January 15, 2007.

To submit papers go to www.pitt.edu/~philgrad/papers.html.

Further information may be found at <http://www.pitt.edu/~philgrad/>.
