This annual exhibition features the works of graduating seniors who have submitted their work to a faculty jury as well as exceptional works selected from sophomores and juniors. Artists will discuss their ideas and techniques during the gallery talks on April 16.