

GSPIA University of Pittsburgh
Graduate School of Public and International Affairs

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH • GRADUATE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

TRANSCENDING BOUNDARIES: THE FLIP SIDE OF GLOBALIZATION

MARCH 23RD - 24TH 2007

Starts at 12 noon in the Kurtzman Room, William Pitt Union
University of Pittsburgh

Presented by:

Graduate School of Public and International Affairs - AGORA
Graduate School of Public Health - Association of Women in Public Health
Heinz School of Public Policy and Management - International Development Group

The events are free but registration is REQUIRED. Visit www.pitt.edu/~sorc/agora.

Friday, March 23rd :

- 12:00 - 1:30 pm Keynote Luncheon & Speaker - John Lauder, Arete Associates
2:00 - 4:00 pm "The New Measurement of Growth" (3430 WWPH)
"The Globalization of Crime" (3911 WWPH)
4:15 - 6:15 pm "The Consequences of Being Left Behind" (3430 WWPH)
"Role of Knowledge in Civil Society" (3911 WWPH)

Saturday, March 24th :

- 9:00 - 10:00 am Breakfast - GSPIA Student Lounge
10:00 - 12:00 pm "The Changing Face of Crisis Response" (3430 WWPH)
"Fighting an Elusive Enemy" (3911 WWPH)
12:00 - 1:00 pm Lunch - GSPIA Student Lounge
1:00 - 2:30 pm "The Development Challenge" (3430 WWPH)
"Evaluating Security in a Non Secure World" (3911 WWPH)
3:00 - 4:30 pm "Where do I fit?: The Question of Social Identity" (3430 WWPH)
"Following the Birds West: Why Migrate?" (3911 WWPH)