Vacaciones, días feriados y aniversarios. 1: Año Nuevo

An Ode to BA Super Help Desk

Awakening
The Empiricist's Song gone West
The Sphinx, a silent shadow of the East
The Pyramid , a patient witness

Awakening
From the Obelisk of Knowledge
The Great Ankh, we took
And Euclid's secrets, laid bare
Piercing Apathy's Heart
Banishing Fear's torment
In the brightness of Ra
Looking into the Nile
A memory of research
Now desert of publications

Awakening
We looked forlornly
From Lagos to Karachi
…And beyond
A story of dearth
And death of the researcher
An elegy to another age

Awakening
Does one not ask?
Why have we faltered?
Why have we declined?
And Ron answered "stataphobia
Holding a scroll of hope
For stataphobia is a deadly curse
Anathema to better research

Awakening
We invoked the Muse
Herald of ancient calls
From the hallowed Halls
Echoing off the walls
In labyrinthine chants
From the City of Alexander
And knowledge rose
From its trove

Rising
In the Epidemiological Grail
In the Cauldron of Supercourse
Served in the New Age Chalice
By many a thousand Wiseman
In 'empiricician cascade'
Of Sage and Acolyte
Returning statistics
From the verge
Wikified...
Simplified...
A Synergy
Of minds and methods

Rising
BA SuperDesk
A bane to stataphobia is born
In the dawn of a New Spring
Do you have a question for these Wisemen?

Central Asian Journal Of Global Health

Central Asian Journal of Global Health is a biannual journal aimed at everybody working in the fields of public health and medicine. Specifically, it aims to focus on the geographic region that is oftentimes not sufficiently highlighted by existing journals, Central Asian countries. In addition to research in Central Asia, the journal will be opened to submissions from other countries. In addition to the highest-quality reviews and perspectives covering the field of health in Central Asia, each issue will include news stories and investigate hottest topics and new research practices in the field of public health.

Central Asian Journal of Global Health is a fully peer-reviewed online open access journal, edited by the key developers of the Global Health Network Supercourse project (www.pitt.edu/~super1). It will provide forum for discussion for all aspects of public health, medicine, and global health in Central Asia and around the world. Central Asian Journal of Global Health is dedicated to publishing material of the highest scholarly interest, and to this end we have assembled a distinguished Editorial Advisory board. We welcome contributions from established researchers, especially those working on cutting edge questions, but we are also keen to act as a supportive environment for new investigators and with those who never published in English language journals.
