DEVELOPING CLINICAL ETHICS CONSULTATION SKILLS: FROM THEORY TO PRACTICE

Monday April 20, 2015
8:30 am – 4:15 pm

Hospital Council of Western Pennsylvania
500 Commonwealth Drive
Warrendale, PA 15086

Sponsored by the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine, Center for Continuing Education in the Health Sciences, and the University of Pittsburgh Consortium Ethics Program (CEP).

The Consortium Ethics Program is a regional ethics education network funded by its member institutions and co-sponsored by the University of Pittsburgh Department of Medicine, Division of General Internal Medicine.

Aviva Katz, MD, MA, Director
OVERALL OBJECTIVES:
At the conclusion of this program, participants should be able to:
1. Define and identify the elements and key processes of an ethics consult.
2. Discuss the ASBH competencies required of the clinical ethics consultant.
3. Compare and contrast ethics versus legal consultation.
4. Develop strategies to enhance and improve ethics consultation skills.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:
This conference is open to new ethics consultants and those serving on their institution’s ethics committee who are interested in performing ethics consults, as well as those actively performing ethics consults who would like to refresh their skills.
