Required Readings
There are two required texts for this course. The readings will be discussed on the dates listed above. Graduate students taking the course are required to do additional reading assignments and to do written assignments on selected readings; written assignments will be announced on a weekly basis.

Listening Assignments
Brief responses to specific questions about your listening materials. Your discussion should incorporate material from listening, class sessions, and readings. Each assignment will be distributed at the session before the due date. Late papers will not be accepted.

Attendance and Class Participation
Class participation is part of your grade and is determined by your attendance, a map quiz, and your involvement in class discussions.

Concert Performance Review
A descriptive and critical review of one concert performance. All students must attend and write a review of the concert of Indonesian music to be held in Frick Fine Arts Auditorium on April 9 at 8pm. Admission is free for Pitt students. The review should mention the date and location of the presentation, instruments used, repertoire played, a description of the performers and the audience, and the noteworthy or striking events that occurred during the concert. It is very important to relate your description and observations to topics discussed in class. Your impressions and evaluative comments are also important. The quality of written communication is an important part of the evaluation for this assignment. Reports must be typed on white (or light) paper using standard typeface (please, no script or fancy typeface). Use one-inch margins around the text. Your essays must be carefully edited for typos and grammatical errors; they should appear clean and neat. If your paper does not conform to these specifications, it will be considered unfinished and returned to you without a grade.

Performance
Students are encouraged to register for Music 0690: University Gamelan. This 1-credit class meets twice a week, from 4pm to 520pm in Bellefield Hall Room 309A. In this class, you will learn how to play Sundanese gamelan, an ensemble made up of mostly percussion instruments. Students in this class who register and receive a grade of “B” or better in Music 0690 will be exempt from doing 3 listening assignments.

Final
The final exam will consist of an in-class exam on the last day of class.

Grading Guidelines
Listening Assignments (60%); Map Quiz, In-class Participation, and Attendance (10%); Concert Performance Review (10%); Final (20%).
